*Just like the earth and space itself
And all the other mighty elements
For boundless multitudes of beings
May I always be the ground of life,
The source of varied sustenance.*

“A Prayer Book is

- the blessing of the Guru that awakens the seed of buddha-nature within us, causing it to sprout*
- the enlightened activity of the Buddha that aids the growth of that sprout into a mighty tree*
- the essence of Dharma that provides shelter as the mighty tree of happiness and peace within*
- the support of the Sangha that encourages us to reach for and taste the fruits of that tree*

For all these reasons, we should appreciate, treasure, and respect a Prayer Book.”

From within a pure and greatly virtuous state of mind I and all mother sentient beings as vast as the vastness of space go for refuge to the guru and Three Jewels from now till the essence of enlightenment.

Clouds of outer, inner, and secret offerings completely pervade the earth, the sky, and the expanse of space. Their nature is pristine wisdom; their aspect is the inner offering and the individual aspects of the offering substances; their function is to generate special pristine wisdom of bliss and emptiness as objects enjoyed by the six senses. These immaculate substances are inconceivable to perceive.

sun, and moon disk.

With major and minor marks, blazing with thousands of rays of light, in the midst of a five-color rainbow he sits in the vajra posture. His five pure aggregates are the five tathāgatas, his four elements are the four consorts, his sense bases, sinews, and joints are actual bodhisattvas.
 The pores of his body are the 21,000 arhats, his limbs are the powerful wrathful protectors. The spectrum of rays of light is secret yakṣas, and worldly gods are cushions for his feet.

I promise to hold steadfast each of the three types of ethics:
 trainings in ethics,
 gathering virtuous Dharma, and enacting the purpose of sentient beings.
 To rely on the three unsurpassable Jewels, Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha.
 From now on I will hold the vow generated from Buddha yoga.
 I will hold correctly the mudrā, vajra, and bell of the great and supreme vajra lineage.
 I will also hold the master.
 For the pleasing commitment of the great and supreme jewel lineage I will always offer the four types of generosity six times a day.

You are my guru, you are my yidam,
 You are my dākinī, and Dharma protector.
 From now on till enlightenment
 I will not seek a refuge other than you.
 In this life, the bardo, and even to the end of all future lives hold me with your hook of compassion, free me from saṃsāra's and nirvāṇa's fears, grant all siddhis, be my constant friend, and guard me from obstacles.

(Repeat verse 53 at least 3 times.)

HŪM I make requests to all the tathāgatas, heroes, yoginis,
dākas and dākinīs.

The great bliss that is qualified with liberating qualities resides at the center of the supreme lotus.

Do not assert that there is liberation in one lifetime through many austerities deprived of great bliss.

May the world be happy, the crops good, the grains plentiful, and may Dharma flourish.
 May all happiness and wellbeing arise, and may all our wishes come true.

By the force of this abundant offering may I become a self-arisen buddha for the sake of reincarnating beings.

Through my generosity may all those who were not delivered by the previous buddhas, be delivered.

Bless me to complete the perfection of ethics of gathering virtuous dharmas, establishing the purpose of sentient beings,
and never transgressing the limits of vows of individual liberation, bodhisattva, and secret mantra, even for the sake of my life.

Bless me to complete the perfection of absorption through the balanced placement of single-pointed concentration on the empty mode of existence of all phenomena abandoning the faults of distraction, mental sinking, and excitation.

106

Bless me to complete the illusory concentration realizing how inner and outer phenomena are like illusions, dreams, and the form of moon in clear water: they appear but do not truly exist.

Bless me to realize the intended meaning of Nāgārjuna that the two - samsāra and nirvāna lacking even an atom of inherent existence and cause and result and dependent arising being infallible - appear in harmony, without being contradictory.

Bless me that whatever appears may arise as the body of the deity, purifying all stains of ordinary appearance and grasping through the yoga of the first stage that transforms birth, death, and the bardo into the three bodies of the conqueror.

Bless me to actualize in this life the path of union of illusory body and clear light that arises from placing your feet my protector, at the center of the dhūtī, in the eight-petals of my heart.

If the time of death occurs without having progressed along the path bless me to proceed to a pure land through the instruction for correctly applying the five forces and the guru's transference, the forceful means to enlightenment.

may I never be separated from the four spheres of the supreme vehicle, and may I reach the end of the path of the two stages, along with renunciation, bodhicitta, and correct view.

118 VERSES OF AUSPICIOUSNESS¹⁰

si shi'i nam kar ji nye ge tsen gyi deng dir mi shi gü pa kun drel te ne kap thar thug ge lek nam khe dzö

Through the quality of whatever virtue exists in samsāra and nirvāṇa may I be free from inauspiciousness and loss here and now.
May I have the auspiciousness of enjoying the excellent glory of the celestial treasure of immediate and ultimate happiness and wellbeing.

119

kun khen lo zang drak pe chö kyi der

May all be auspicious for the Muni's teachings to remain for long with your centers of Dharma, omniscient Losang Drakpa filled by hosts of renunciate yogis striving single-pointedly to establish the three pure trainings.

120

May there be the auspiciousness of Losang Vajradhara to spontaneously establish the purpose of others having received the blessing of Losang Drakpa who made requests to the supreme guru-deity from the time of his youth

121

dö gü'i jor wa yar gyi tso tar phel

May I have the auspiciousness of enjoying the excellent glory of my wealth of desired objects swelling like a summer lake.

May I pass my days and nights with the immaculate Dharma of Losang

with an unbroken stream of rebirths of freedom in faultless families.

122

dag sok nam kyi deng ne jang chub bar

By the collection of whatever virtue I and others have done and will do from now till enlightenment may there be the auspiciousness of your body of form lord, venerable, immaculate guru, to remain in this land firmly, unchanging like a vajra.

AWAKENING VAJRA was founded in 2010 by Geshé Gyalten to fulfill the great vision of His Eminence Chöden Rinpoche to bring benefits to sentient beings through five branches of study and practice. The branches are:

1. Buddhist Philosophy and Meditation
2. Astrology
3. Linguistics
4. Medical Healing
5. Art/Crafts and Sculpture

Awakening Vajra is creating Centers around the world to offer students an opportunity to master all five branches of study. The Centers will provide a sound environment in which to produce awakened practitioners, teachers, philosophers, meditators, social workers, doctors, healers, and astrologers through studying and practicing in the five branches.
